COVERING "THEBEAN"

In the Presentation Category, we encourage performers to deliver their message From The Heart and seek Unity in the approach. Here are four components to consider when artistically placing the music and message first- Believable, Effective, Appropriate and Natural. Over the next few weeks we will discuss the importance of "Covering The B.E.A.N." We continue with EFFECTIVE. Enjoy and interact with the discussion.

EFFECTIVE- "An effective human being is a whole that is greater than the sum of its parts".

Ida P. Rolf

Being effective means having the capability of producing, or in fact, producing an intended result- especially one that has a striking outcome. One who is able to accomplish a purpose is known as someone who functions effectively. When you implement "an effective remedy or reprimand" you apply fact and the solution becomes real. The concept of effectiveness spurs the notion of a unit that is ready for service.

When someone or something affects us, our minds are emotionally moved. Each of us will respond to an effective stimulus differently. The information that we take in daily about our lives, families, friends, colleagues, other relationships, world and local news, special events and yes- Special Performances.

People can actually experience a performance that so moves them- or affects them- that it will allow each individual to alter their own human behavior. This is what is referred to as a "life changing experience".

It is our privilege and responsibility as performers, to create the performance environment to foster life changing experiences. This is what we are called upon to do. This is what we live to accomplish.

JULY 18 & 19

We have a very busy, fun-filled and hopefully profitable weekend planned for July 18 & 19.

Sat. July 18, 9:00 am, One Voice Rehearsal

Sat. July 18, 8:00 pm, Concert at Glenridge

Sun. July 19, 10:00 am, Service at First

Methodist Church in downtown Bradenton

Sun. July 19, 2:30 pm, Concert at Glenridge

This is an ambitious schedule, but it is designed to help generate some much-needed revenue. Accordingly, we hope that every singer who participates; sells from 7 to 10 tickets for the concerts at Glenridge. They are a bargain at $15 each. Additionally, we hope that those of you who can't sing that weekend will still buy several tickets to show your support.
